

Fairbanks Curling Club Bare Facts

This is a pirate edition of the club's Bear facts Newsletter (hence the name change). It is an attempt to get some basic info out to our members.

JR Nationals January 29-February 5

The club is hosting the US Junior Nationals starting next Saturday. 10 Girls teams and 10 boys teams will compete for the national championship and the right to represent the US at the world championships in Scotland.

Schedule of Events

Thursday, Friday Ice preparation

Saturday Team Practices

Sunday Games 8 am, 12 pm, Opening ceremony at 4 pm, games at 4:30 pm and 8:30 pm

Monday Games at 8 am, 12pm, 4pm and 8 pm

Tuesday games at 9am, 2pm and 7pm

Wednesday Games at 8 am, 12pm, 4pm and 8 pm

Thursday Games at 8 am, 12pm, 4pm and possibly 8pm

Friday Page and Semi-final games at 2pm and 7 pm

Saturday Finals at 12pm and closing banquet at 7pm

Note there will be no league curling from Thursday January 27 to Sunday February 5th including little Rockers

More info can be found at <http://www.2011juniornationals.com>

Sweetheart Spiel and Junior Rookie Spiel

A Sweethearts Spiel and a Junior Rookie Spiel are scheduled for the weekend of February 16th. More info will be out soon. See Terra Bowen or Marie Sorenson if you would like to help or sign up early.

Junior Parents Meeting

A committee of parents is now forming to help provide structure and guidance to the Junior Curling Program, ages 11 and up. Your input and involvement would be welcomed and appreciated.

There will be a Parent meeting on Sunday, Jan 30, at 5:00 to briefly go over some of the activities planned for the remainder of this year, and to begin discussions about how to organize next year's Junior program.

A calendar of planned events for the remainder of this season is available on the Youth Tab.

